

QUOTATION MARKS

Use quotes to search for a set of words like an extract from a book or song lyrics.

TIME [PLACE]

To see what time it is anywhere in the world, type the word time followed by a town or city.

MINUS

Exclude a word from your search results by placing a minus sign (-) directly before your query.

TILDE

Get results that include synonyms by placing the ~ sign immediately in front of your search term.

SITE:[INSERT URL]

Search a specific website by using the term site: followed by the URL.

RELATED:[INSERT URL]

Use the related: query to find websites that contain similar content.

CALCULATOR

Enter any maths equation into the search box and Google will calculate your answer.

@#%^*()= [] \

PUNCTUATION

When searching, don't include punctuation or special characters as Google d

Google

Tips and Tricks |

nctuation
oesn't read it.

PAPERZIP

SPORT Searchin will disp

CONVERSIONS

Convert any measurement by typing in the number and the unit.
E.g. 4 miles in km.

FILETYPES

Search for specific types of files, such as PDFs or DOCs by adding filetype: and the file abbreviation.

LOCATIONS

Add a town, city or area code to your search query and Google will find nearby results.

DEFINITIONS

Put define: in front of any word to get its definition.

WEATHER

To find out the weather in any location, just search weather followed by a city or town.

FUN VISUALS

Make the Google search page do a 360° turn by typing do a barrel roll or tilt the page by searching askew.

SPORTS

Search for teams, individuals or competitions to view recent scores and schedules.

SUNRISE / SUNSET

Type sunrise or sunset followed by a location, to find out when the sun rises or sets.